Weihnachts-Zipfel in Trier

Another way to say Merry Christmas ...

If you like Christmas but are a bit bothered by these always-the-same 'Last Christmas'-songs that you have been bombarded with since September, you should consider going to Trier on 13 December.

On that day, our colleague Nils Thoma from unit C2, chairman of the Jazz Club in Germany's oldest town, is organising a festival in Tufa (Tuchfabrik) Trier, Wechselstr. 4-6.

Seven bands will be performing during the evening and cover the musical genres Blues, Jazz and Singer/Songwriter.

Each band was asked to come and play music, which for THEM is related to Christmas.

This can be anything from soft/sentimental to critical, and we all are very keen to hear/see the result.

The concert will be recorded live and on that evening only, you will have the chance to pre-order the resulting CD (to be released in mid 2015) for a special price.

The invited bands are:

- ad hoc — Jazz Quintet
- Trio DeLaVie — Singer/Songwriter
- Dorle & Band — Singer/Songwriter with a jazzy attitude
- Groove Improve — a guitar duet
- Jazz- & Pop-Chor Trier: the Jazz-Club' choir
- Rhythm & Swing BigBand — Trier's best big band with female and male singer
- Wollmann & Brauner — Blues duet
